REHABILITATION PLAN FOR THE AmCare HEALTH PLANS OF LOUISIANA, INC.
SUBMITTED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF INSURANCE FOR THE STATE OF LOUISIANA

The Commissioner of Insurance for the State of Louisiana as Rehabilitator of AmCare Health Plans of Louisiana, Inc. through the Court-appointed Receiver (the "Receiver") proposes to implement this Rehabilitation Plan ("the Rehabilitation Plan") for AmCare Health Plans of Louisiana, Inc. ("AmCare"), as follows:

- 1) With respect to the commercial group business of AmCare (those certificates of coverage and other products sold by AmCare to business entities and other multiple person groups), the Receiver shall be authorized to accept an offer from United Healthcare, Inc. ("United Healthcare") to AmCare, which offer will replace all the commercial group coverage of AmCare in effect prior to September 30, 2002 on a guarantee issue basis (United Healthcare will agree to issue health care coverage to all existing commercial groups receiving health care coverage with AmCare without exception).
- 2) The Receiver shall be authorized to discontinue and cancel all certificates of coverage, subscriber agreements, member agreements and/or policies of insurance of AmCare effective at 12:00 p.m. midnight on September 30, 2002.
- 3) The Receiver shall be authorized to issue written notice of no less than ten (10) days to all commercial group and individual policyholders that their coverage with AmCare is being discontinued and cancelled effective at 12:00 p.m. midnight on September 30, 2002. The discontinuance and cancellation notice shall be deemed to meet the requirements of La. R.S. 22:250.13 C for the purpose of assuring individual eligibility rights to replacement coverage under La. R.S. 22:250.12(H) through October 15, 2002.
- 4) All notices required to be provided as to the discontinuance and cancellation of coverages shall be provided by regular United States mail with a certificate of mailing (proof of mailing) provided by the United States Post Office, which notices shall be considered issued on the date of such mailing. The addresses for the notices shall be the last address for each subscriber, member or enrollee as recorded in the books and records, including computer records, of AmCare. The Receiver will retain unopened notices that are returned as undeliverable or not accepted for verification as necessary..
- 5) All policies, certificates of coverage, plans and other products of AmCare pursuant to which AmCare is required to provide coverage to enrollees and subscribers shall be terminated effective September 30, 2002.
- 6) For the period from the date of the entry of the order approving this Plan of Rehabilitation through November 30, 2002, all business and operations of AmCare shall be conducted as the Receiver may deem necessary or advisable.
- 7) No new business and/or renewal business will be written or undertaken by AmCare however, certificates of coverages in force through September 30, 2002 will be adjusted by life style changes, i.e. birth of a baby, marriage, etc.
